

XI. Amendments

A. This policy shall be the final authority in all questions of administration until time and changing conditions necessitate a revision. When new state laws or Federal statutes supersede some section, it is automatically amended. A majority vote shall be required for approval of an amendment and shall become effective immediately unless otherwise stipulated in the amendment.