

Montpelier Public School

B. Legal Status

The School Board shall have legal status only when assembled in a regular or a special meeting at which a majority of the board is present. No person shall have authority to make decisions or transact school business except when authorized by the school board to act as its agent. The school board shall legally be responsible for the operation of the school and shall be the final authority on any matter of school policy or business.