

Montpelier Public School

I. Religious Activities

The school administration may excuse students for religious activities when it deems advisable.